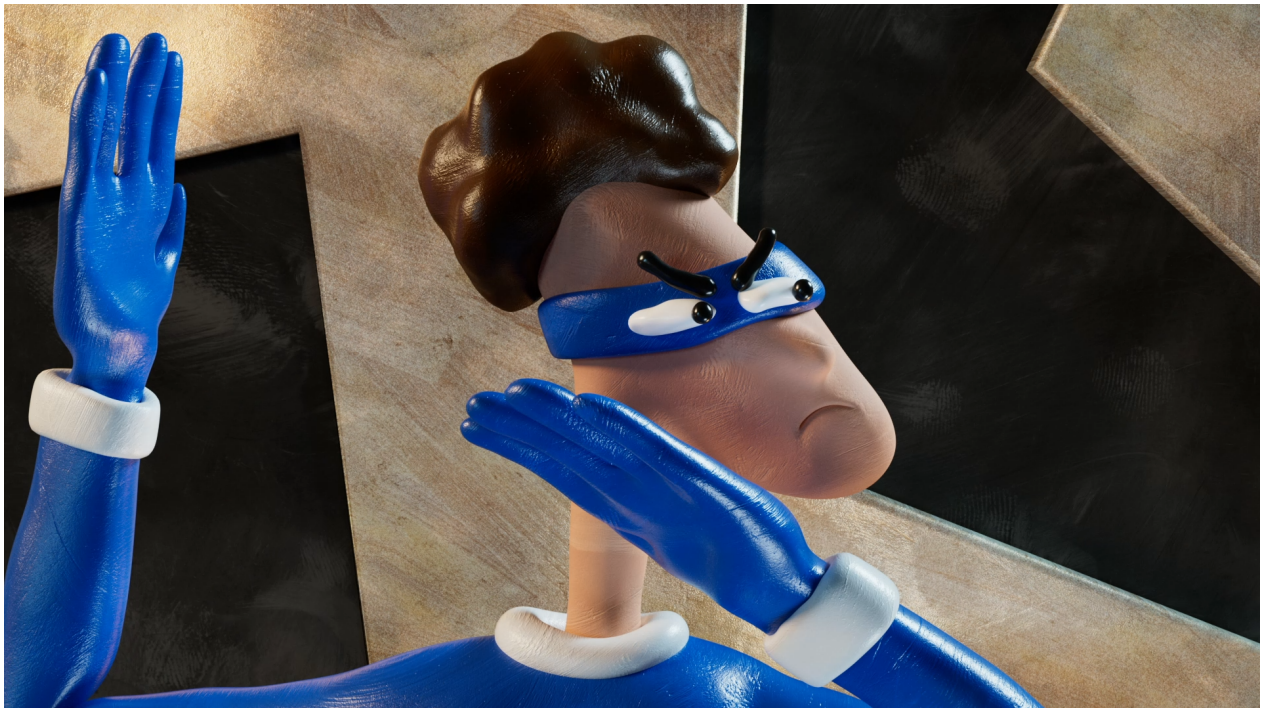
The Power Ranger Plugin

The Power Ranger is the first of a number of plugins for Cinema 4D and we will be marketing them under the name Powerhouse Industries.

Various marketing materials have been provided in this submission. Also included are a number of screen shots to show how the plugin can be accessed and used.

Another marketing promotional resource currently being written is an animation featuring the Power Ranger character. And here they are:



Of course, we are providing seriously useful utilities, but in a light hearted way.
